Gil Turner
Head of Applications Solutions, Asia Pacific
SITA

Gil Turner was appointed Head of Applications Services, Asia Pacific for SITA Information Networking Computing (SITA INC) in July 2004. In this role Gil has regional responsibility for sales support for all SITA INC products and services provided by two of the three business units: Passenger & Travel Solutions and Airline Operation and AIRCOM solutions, via the Applications Competency Centre.

Gil rejoined SITA in 2001, having previously worked for SITA in a regional role in Asia Pacific, from 1992-1999. Gil has 28 years experience in the airline industry, having held senior roles in Revenue Management, Fares Distribution, Passenger Reservations and Schedule Planning. During these years, apart from SITA, Gil has worked for five airlines: Qantas, Air New Zealand, Ansett Australia, Air Niugini and East West Airlines.

An Australian National, Gil is married with two adult sons. He is currently studying for a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree with a major in Information Systems Management and minor in Human Resource Management.
