

Nick Evered
Senior Vice President and General Manager, Asia Pacific
Concur Technologies Pte Ltd

Nick serves as Senior Vice President and General Manager, for Concur across Asia Pacific. Responsible for revenue and margin growth, he leads the sales and operations team in delivering innovative software technology solutions to meet customers' needs. Since joining Concur in 2014, Nick played an instrumental role in architecting and expanding Concur's business presence within APAC.

Nick is an industry veteran with more than 30 years of experience within the IT sector. Highly knowledgeable across business-technology consulting, applications development and operations management, he is equally passionate about business strategy, leadership and the growth and development of the Asia Pacific region, having resided in Singapore over the past 15 years.

Prior to Concur, Nick was Regional Vice President, Asia responsible for applications performance management, with Compuware. Earlier in his career, Nick held various senior executive roles at Oracle, Fujitsu, and KPMG.

Concur, an SAP company, is the global leader in travel and expense management. By connecting data, applications and people, Concur delivers an effortless experience for organizations providing total transparency into discretionary spend.