

Samuel Lau
Regional Director
Asia Pacific

Sam has worked with ATPCO for 18 years and in various segments of the industry for the past 28 years. Before joining ATPCO, Sam led a strategic business unit for SITA and was responsible for expanding its presence and product portfolios for customers in Asia. He also held regional management positions at Abacus during its formative years, and he was country manager for Air New Zealand in Singapore and commercial sales manager for Singapore Airlines.

