

Sandrine de SAINT SAUVEUR
President & CEO - APG

Born in 1971 in France, 2 children.

Sandrine de SAINT SAUVEUR is graduated from San Diego State University in Finance. .
Employed by APG since 1993, she worked in all passenger departments of APG in charge of developing sales both of the French market and European markets together with APG NETWORK
Since 1999, she has developed the IBCS-IATA product and has been running over 800 contracts around the world.

In 2003 she became President & CEO of APG DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM , full subsidiary of APG.

In April 2007 she has taken over APG France and became President & CEO.

Since 2011, she is also in charge of the incorporation of APG Global Associates network into APG INC and acts as President of APG INC.

In 2015, she was promoted to the rank of Chevalier of the Legion of Honour on the request of the Minister of the Economy : Mr Emmanuel Macron.

In 2016, APG Airlines was created and started its scheduled operations between Nice to Bergamo. She has been nominated President & CEO.

She became Board member of UATP in 2017

She gives conferences in some commercial high schools and in particular the ENAC (Ecole Nationale de l'Aviation Civile).