

U.S. Bank Named a 2019 World's Most Ethical Company® by Ethisphere Institute

Bruno Pinto Oliveira, Vice President of Airlines at Elavon /US Bank

Bruno Pinto, currently responsible for the strategic development of the international airline business in Elavon / Us Bank.

His main functions is to foster new commercial and institutional relations with Airlines, technology partners and card schemes. Evangelise on the value proposition and partnership benefits of working with Elavon.

Bruno is a strong believer on knowledge share of the more than 30 years expertise of airlines that Elavon has to clients -Via active partnership.

Partnership is key in the Elavon add value proposition from acquiring, professional services and add value contributions to our designated clients as a way to generate new revenue and minimise cost of processing.

He started his career in trade finance and cash management for large corporates at a top financial institution, advising cross boarder treasury managers on how to maximise cash flow and treasury ROI.

With Elavon he has hold positions in the international corporate areas of Hospitality and Travel.

