

Sean Ashton

Commercial Director

Ixaris

Sean joined Ixaris as Commercial Director in 2018, overseeing all of its commercial activities including Sales and Account Management. With 12 years of international payments industry experience at a Director level at CloudPay Payments, Skrill and Hyperwallet, Sean is bringing Ixaris' airline specific payment method to market to address a critical and exciting sector gap. Before joining Ixaris, Sean built, launched and sold the service now known as CloudPay Payments. Facilitating the distribution of global payroll payments on behalf of CloudPay's customers, Sean was a pioneering force in delivering this integrated global payroll and payments processing system.
