

Mario Kriebel

Vice President, Commercial Payment Solutions – Global

BCD Travel

Mario Kriebel serves as vice president of BCD Travel's commercial payments solutions team. In this role, he holds global responsibility for all programs and activities around payment components. This includes serving as the company's lead in contractual development and ongoing relationship management, planning, support and operations.

Based in Germany, in 2001 Mario joined the commercial card department of BCD Travel legacy company TQ3 Travel Solutions.

He has developed and maintains strong working relationships with a number of card issuers and card associations. Mario serves as co-chair of the GBTA Europe Payment Solutions Committee and is a member of GBTA's Global Payment Solutions Committee.