

Sandrine de SAINT SAUVEUR
President & CEO – APG GROUP

Born in 1971 in France, 2 children.

Sandrine de SAINT SAUVEUR is graduated from San Diego State University in Finance.

Employed by APG since 1993, she worked in all passenger departments of APG in charge of developing sales both of the French market and European markets together with APG Network

Since 1999, she has developed the IBCS-IATA product and has been running over 800 contracts around the world.

In 2003 she became President & CEO of APG Distribution System, full subsidiary of APG.

In 2007 she has taken over APG France and became President & CEO.

In 2011, she incorporated APG Global Associates Network into APG Inc. She now acts as President of APG Inc.

APG Group is the leading company in the commercial and distribution services. Through 100+ worldwide offices, APG now covers over 170 countries across all continents with unrivalled links with the travel industry in each market.

In 2015, she was promoted to the rank of Chevalier of the Legion of Honour on the request of the Minister of the Economy: Mr Emmanuel Macron.

In 2016, APG Airlines, a French scheduled airline was created: she was appointed President & CEO.

From 2017-2020 she was part of UATP Board (Universal Air Travel Plan, headquartered in Washington DC).

Since 2018, she has been member of the ERA Board (European Regional Association).

She gives conferences in some commercial high schools and in particular the ENAC in Toulouse (Ecole Nationale de l'Aviation Civile).

She is an active member of the IWF: International Women Forum Network.