

Jorge Díaz

Founder & CEO

AirGateway

Jorge is a technical-backgrounded CEO with clear focus on technology-leveraged business. Having more than two decades of experience in building SaaS products, he deals with complex technical problems and feels specially comfortable working with agile teams/companies.

He founded AirGateway in the early 2016 because he understood it was just the beginning of a deep transformation/liberalisation of the airline distribution industry creating an unprecedented opportunity in the Travel Tech space.
