

Maria João Faria

Head of Corporate Finance

TAP Air Portugal

Maria João Faria is the responsible for the corporate finance team in TAP since 2018, being the responsible for liaising with providers of payments ecosystem in this company. Before, she worked for 20 years in investment banking where she developed many projects, some of them in the payments sector. She is graduated in business administration with an MBA.