

Boris Padovan \(PhD\), Partner of Travel in Motion GmbH, is a senior business executive with over 20 years of experience in IT and aviation.

Boris works with airlines and airports in defining strategies and executing them. He also supports IT vendors for their go to market, by leveraging his long-term experiences as commercial leader for global aviation IT companies. Boris core focus is on airline distribution and retailing, IATA NDC, Offer and Order Management, passenger disruption processes as well as airport passenger processes.

Boris started his career with Swissair IT and headed airline sales for EDS in Europe. Afterwards he joined SITA as Regional Vice President for Europe, before moving to Travelport where he was heading sales and account management for airline IT. In 2020 Boris joined Travel in Motion and has been a partner since 2021.