

Thorsten Schiefer

GM Europe

Traxo Inc.

Thorsten has over 25 years of expertise in the global travel and transport industry. He joined Traxo in 2014 overlooking the European relationships, based out of Germany.

After a strong focus on airline and airport IT solutions he is now looking through the lens of corporations travel managers, supporting their travel programs to ensure a seamless, secure and innovative travel experience for their travelers.

Traxo is working with Global and European stakeholders to make sure all relevant business travel information is automatically available and distributed to the corporations and their partners/providers in order to allow for flexible travel programs and to avoid any potential „blindspots“.