Ricardo "Riky" Vittoria is a serial entrepreneur with over a decade's experience in AI and travel. He previously founded 30SecondsToFly, which specialized in AI solutions to optimize travel call centers.

The venture was acquired by American Express GBT in 2020, upon which he led their AI initiatives. He is now the Co-founder and CEO of Acai Travel Inc., a fast growing AI company that optimizes call centers within the travel space.
